Upcoming Events

Turkey Creek, Saturday, April 5, 2008 (9:00A start) – we will be finalizing our player count with the course within the next week, so there is still time to sign up if you are interested in playing in this event.

Mather, Saturday, May 3, 2008 (9:00A start) – older style course (a little longer, a little wider, greens a little gentler) than what we've seen so far in 2008 CGC events. Entry forms are available on the website (www.carmichaelgolfclub.com).

Results from Teal Bend, March 15, 2008

Our first full field event of 2008, with a group of 34 players (32 members and 2 guests) joining us on a day that was predicted to be unsettled, but turned out to be quite pleasant. Teal Bend was playing in near summer like conditions, with hard and fast greens. The courses' Tournament Director told us that morning that a Club Pro/Tournament Director's tournament followed us later in the day, and some of the pin positions posed quite a challenge for our group. There were more scores of net 80 or higher (10) than sub par net scores (7, with only 2 under net 70) – another example that a courses' length isn't the only criteria for gaging its' difficulty. Thanks to Donna Johnson for coming out (unable to play due to injury) and helping us add to our picture collection for the website!!
