Results from Ancil Hoffman, August 4, 2008

This was our only regularly scheduled Monday event for 2008, and a good turnout of 25 players (23 members and 2 guests) took the opportunity for this early weekday morning start. The course was quite peaceful and unhurried – while remaining as challenging as ever. We ended up pretty fortunate with the weather – it was quite comfortable early, and only late in the round did it feel like August.

Results from Bing Maloney, August 16, 2008

While the breezes were just starting to cool us off from a hot spell, the early start was still welcome to our group of 34 players (33 members and 1 guest). While Bing plays longer than many of the newer courses in the area, it's fairly wide fairways and general lack of hazards made it an inviting target for many of our members. Players needed to finish under par net to have a chance to finish in the money in all 4 flights. With the availability for early morning times in the summer, we see Bing as being a more likely member of our 2-3 year rotation.

Sub-par (gross) holes
